J. Russel Bouws

Founder J. Russel Bouws went to be with the Lord on August 18, 1992. He is remembered by his family and community for his vision, humility, compassion and faith in God. He left a legacy that will carry on for years to come.

The First Russ' Restaurant

Founder J. Russel Bouws began operating his first restaurant in 1934 at twenty years of age. His father purchased "Doc's Barbeque" in Holland, MI, a 12' x 16' wood structure, which included a three burner gas plate, a 12 inch skillet, a kitchen table and five chairs, all for $147.00. The land was leased for two meals a day.

Soon after taking over, Russ and his father, John Bouws, added a 6' by 16' kitchen and a small bedroom, so Russ could sleep at the restaurant to ward off break-ins. Initially sales ranged from $4 to $7 a day, but in April, 1935, Russ grossed $197 and the business was paid for with money in the bank to spare!

The years progressed, the war ended, and with business booming, expansion and enlargement became almost a yearly ritual with Russ' Restaurants. Russ' sons John and Bryan joined the business operations in 1965. The first Russ' Restaurant built in another community was located in Muskegon soon to be followed by restaurants in Grand Rapids and other lakeshore communities. Russ' Restaurants now has grown to include 12 restaurants; a central Commissary division, in which quality and consistency in their product is maintained; Timberwood Farms, a retail division; and a Corporate Office in Holland, Michigan.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled" (Matthew 5:6)
